Dear Mr. Casey:

Dr. Herbert Scoville, a former CIA Deputy Director has been quoted in support of a nuclear weapons "freeze", saying that: "It is hard to see how any clandestine production (of nuclear weapons) that would add significantly . . . could escape detection by our intelligence."

Is there anything by way of unclassified documents or articles to which you could refer me that would support or refute Scoville's assertion? I am currently writing a book on the subject of nuclear war. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
